SENATOR ALLARD TO OPEN CONSTITUENT SERVICE OFFICE IN DURANGO ON MONDAY, JANUARY 24TH

AARYN RICHARDSON TO REPRESENT ALLARD IN SEVEN-COUNTY AREA

WASHINGTON, D.C.— U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-Colorado) announced on Friday that his new Durango constituent service office will open on Monday, January 24th. Additionally, the senator named Aaryn Richardson of Bayfield, Colorado to be his representative in Southwest Colorado.

“It gives me great pleasure to announce that my new office in Durango will be open for business on Monday, January 24th,” Senator Allard said. “The office will be the sole Congressional office in Durango and the surrounding region, and my staff and I look forward to being the Congressional point of contact for Southwestern Coloradoans.”

Aaryn Richardson, Senator Allard’s new area representative, will run the new office. Aaryn is a graduate of Durango High School and Fort Lewis College. He worked for three years as an aide to former Congressman Scott McInnis.

“I am proud to bring on Aaryn Richardson of Bayfield, Colorado to run my Durango office. He already has three years of experience working for a Congressional office, and I know he will serve the constituents of Southwest Colorado well in his new position,” Senator Allard said.

“With the departures of Senator Campbell and Representative McInnis, Senator Allard has stepped up to make sure that Southwest Colorado is still well served by their representative in Washington, and I am excited to be a part of that,” Mr. Richardson said.

Senator Allard’s Durango office will cover seven counties in the Southwest Colorado area, including Archuleta, Dolores, La Plata, Montezuma, Ouray, San Juan and San Miguel counties.
