NCLID RECEIVES $500,000 FY03 EARMARK ALLARD CALLS GRANT GOOD NEWS FOR NCLID

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-CO) announced that the NCLID (National Center for Low Incidence Disabilities) has received a $500,000 earmark for the programs general budget.

“I am pleased that the NCLID has gotten this money, ” Allard said. “This award will assist in supplementing this important program.”

NCLID is supplemented by grants from NIH and HHS as well as the Department of Education. NCLID is run in conjunction with the University of Northern Colorado and is a national program to provide resources to families, teachers and communities on low incidence disabilities including blindness, deafness and other disabilities.
