ALLARD STATEMENT ON CAMPBELL'S DECISION EXPRESSES "DEEP DISAPPOINTMENT" SAYS "COLORADO AND NATION WILL LOSE A GREAT CHAMPION"

Washington, D.C. – Colorado U.S. Senator Wayne Allard issued the following statement concerning his fellow colleague's decision not to seek re-election to the U.S. Senate this November.

"Colorado and the nation are going to lose a great champion in the U.S. Senate," said Allard. "I am deeply disappointed in Ben's decision, but understand his desire to return to Colorado after twelve highly successful years in the U.S. Senate ."

"The Senate will miss his leadership on Native American and criminal justice issues," added Allard. "I have no doubt that Senator Campbell will continue to build his legacy of service to the people of Colorado in the Jeffersonian ideal of public service."
