ALLARD NAMED “CHAMPION OF SMALL BUSINESS”

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-CO) has been named a ‘Champion of Small Business’ by the Small Business Survival Committee (SBSC), one of the nation’s leading small business advocacy organizations. The honor was given to Allard for his support of small business issues over the past year. It is the fifth year in a row Senator Allard has been named a ‘Champion of Small Business’ by the SBSC.

“Small businesses create 75% of all new jobs in this country, and are the key to economic recovery,” said SBSC President Darrell McKigney. “In these tough economic times, we’re so grateful to Senator Allard for standing up for small businesses in Congress. Senator Allard truly has earned the title of ‘Champion of Small Business.’”

“I am extremely honored to have once again been named as a ‘Champion of Small Business,’” said Senator Allard. “Having run a small business for more than two decades, I have a unique understanding of the struggles small businesspeople deal with on a day-to-day basis. Small businesses are the backbone of our economy and we must do everything we can to ensure that continues.

The Small Business Survival Committee is a national nonprofit organization with over 70,000 members.
