FIFTH ANNUAL SERVICE ACADEMY INFORMATION SEMINAR SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY, APRIL 24

HOSTED BY THE COLORADO CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION

Denver, CO – The Colorado congressional delegation has scheduled its fifth annual “Service Academy Information Seminar” for Saturday, April 24, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Denver Museum of Nature and Science’s Ricketson Auditorium, West Entrance, 2001 Colorado Blvd., Denver.

“I want to encourage any high school students who might be interested in attending one of our nation’s service academies to attend this event and learn about the nomination process,” Colorado U.S. Senator Wayne Allard said. “It is an opportunity for them to hear the facts about each academy and to get their questions answered.”

“Our academies are our nation’s pride. I encourage all interested students to take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about applying to them,” said Colorado U.S. Senator Ben Nighthorse Campbell.

Representatives from the offices of U.S. Senators Campbell and Allard along with representatives from the offices of Colorado Congressmen Joel Hefley, Scott McInnis, Marilyn Musgrave, Bob Beauprez, Diana DeGette, Tom Tancredo, and Mark Udall will be in attendance to discuss the nomination process.

Cadets, midshipmen and other representatives from the service academies will be on hand to present information about the academies.

All students interested in attending one of our nation’s service academies are encouraged to attend this meeting. Those with questions may contact Marti Morgan in Senator Allard’s Loveland office at (970) 461-3530.
