CITY OF GREELEY RECEIVES $1.6 MILLION IN HUD GRANTS ALLARD CALLS GRANTS GREAT NEWS FOR COMMUNITY

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-CO) announced that the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has awarded the City of Greeley a $1.6 million grant.

This award is broken into two grants, the first being a Community Development Block Grant in the amount of $1,046,000. The second is a HOME Investment Partnership Program in the amount of $561,486.

“I am pleased that the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has awarded the City of Greeley these grants,” Allard said. “The grants will help low income families with housing and improve public service programs.”

These grants will be used for housing rehabilitation, acquisition to assist new housing construction and public improvements, all of which are designed to benefit low/ moderate income persons.
