ALLARD TO HOLD AFFORDABLE HOUSING FIELD HEARING IN DENVER ON AUGUST 13th. SENATE HEARING WILL FOCUS ON SOLUTIONS TOWARD ADDRESSING COLORADO'S AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROBLEM

Washington, D.C. – Colorado U.S. Senator Wayne Allard will conduct a field hearing of the Senate Banking Housing and Transportation Subcommittee on Monday, August 13, in Denver. Allard, the ranking member of the Subcommittee, has organized the hearing to gather information about the growing affordable housing problem in Colorado and on-going efforts to help address the problem.

“I want to invite everyone who has an interest in affordable housing, or who would like to learn more about on-going efforts to address this issue to attend this Senate Field Hearing,” Allard said. “This hearing is part of my efforts to bring more attention to the issue of affordable housing and discover what is being done in other communities around the country to address this problem.”

The hearing will take place from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at Gilpin Elementary School, which is located at 2949 California Street in Denver.

Anyone with questions about the hearing can contact Senator Allard's office at (303) 220-7414.
