U.S. SENATOR WAYNE ALLARD NAMES B.J. JONES TO COLORADO SPRINGS OFFICE STAFF

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-Colorado) has named B.J. Jones as his Colorado Springs Area Representative.

“It gives me great pleasure to announce that B.J. Jones is joining my state staff as my new Colorado Springs Area Representative. She will be a real asset in the Colorado Springs office,” Senator Allard said Thursday.

Mrs. Jones was born in Las Cruces, New Mexico. She moved to Colorado after working for BellSouth Services in Miami, Florida for over 20 years. She began working for the Kinship Unit of the El Paso County Department of Human Services as a case aide in 1999, and also served on the Pikes Peak Mental Health Board. She is the wife of Colorado State Senator Ed Jones.

Senator Allard’s Colorado Springs District Office is located at 111 Tejon, Suite 300. The office phone number is (719) 634-6071.
