SENATOR ALLARD ANNOUNCES $100,000 IN FUNDING FOR FORT LEWIS INSTITUTE OF SOUTHWEST STUDIES

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-CO) on Monday announced that the Institute for Southwest Studies at Fort Lewis College has received $100,000 in the FY 2005 Omnibus Appropriations Act.

“I am pleased to announce that my funding request for the Institute for Southwest Studies was included in this year’s Omnibus Appropriations Act,” Senator Allard said. “This funding will help Fort Lewis College continue its efforts to better serve the Four Corners region and the Native American community academically.”

The funding will be directed to provide professional training for staff of tribal museums and archives and developing and coordinating a network of tribal museums. It will also help enhance coordination with tribal two year colleges and the creation of distance learning courses.
